Dear Mr. Carter,

I am writing in further response to your Freedom of Information Act request of October 30, 2019 for structural drawings of the Pentagon heating and refrigeration plant. Your response was received on October 30, 2019 and assigned case number 63420.

I have reviewed the drawings you requested and have determined that access must be denied in full under section (b)(7)(F) of the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552).

This concludes the processing of your request. If you have additional questions concerning my review of this file, please contact me directly 301-837-1797 or thomas.haughton@nara.gov.

If you are not satisfied with my action on this request, you have the right to file an administrative appeal within ninety (90) calendar days from the date of this letter. Appeals must be in writing and may be delivered by regular U.S. mail or by e-mail. By filing an appeal, you preserve your rights under the Freedom of Information Act and present the deciding agency with an opportunity to review your request and reconsider its decision. If you submit your appeal by regular mail, it should be addressed to the Deputy Archivist of the United States (ND), National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, Room 4200, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001. Both the letter and envelope should be clearly marked "FOIA Appeal." If you submit your appeal by e-mail, please send it to foia@nara.gov, addressed to the Deputy Archivist, with the words "FOIA Appeal" in the subject line. If you exercise your right to appeal, please explain why you believe this response does not meet the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act. All communications concerning this request should reference FOIA tracking number 63420.

If you would like the opportunity to discuss my response and attempt to resolve your dispute without initiating the appeals process, you may contact our FOIA Public Liaison for assistance:
